

A Nashville resident for 11 years, Lauren has a Bachelors in Sociology from Western Kentucky University and a Masters in Human Services with a specialization in Criminal Justice from Capella University. Lauren worked for the Tennessee Department of Correction (TDOC) for almost 8 years as a Probation/Parole Officer. In her last 2 ½ years with TDOC, Lauren conducted special investigations ranging from transitional living inquiries to pardon applications/requests. Lauren also worked with Room in the Inn as a Support Coordinator by connecting homeless individuals to housing, employment, mental health, and treatment resources. In June 2015, Lauren joined FiftyForward as the Victory over Crime Program Director, advocating for those older adults who became victims of crime.