

Renee Bouchillon has worked in the protective services field over 20 years. She began her career working for the Department of Children's Services as a Child Protective Services worker. Three years later, she transferred to the Department of Human Services and began working with Adult Protective Services. Renee has held several different positions throughout her APS career which include APS Social Counselor, APS Field Supervisor, APS Program Coordinator, and APS Program Supervisor. Renee is currently the Director of Adult Protective Services with the responsibility of statewide operations of the APS program.

Renee is very active with community partners and participates on several councils and boards. She is the a member of the Adult Abuse Coalition of South Central Tennessee (AASCT), Tennessee Vulnerable Adult Coalition (TVAC), and a member of the South Central TN Area Agency on Aging Advisory Board. Renee serves as the DHS Commissioner's Designee for the Tennessee Commission on Aging & Disability (TCAD), the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Statewide Planning Council, and previously served on the Legislative Elder Abuse Taskforce.

Renee holds a Master of Arts degree in Counseling from Trevecca Nazarene University and a Graduate Certificate in Gerontology from Middle Tennessee State University.